

WIFE OF GORMLEY DICTATES TERMS OF HIS SURRENDER

Criminal "With a Pull" Who Jumped His Bail Returns to Cell Under Promise His Sentence Shall Not Exceed 5 Years.

The police force of New York—8,000 strong—completed a bargain this morning, when the wife of "Jack" Gormley, the notorious burglar who got out of the clutches of the authorities three weeks ago, through political pull and straw bail, handed her husband over to two detectives under the agreement that he should escape with a five year penalty.

The bargain was completed last night, and Mrs. Gormley said: "Go to Fifty-fifth street and Ninth avenue at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning and you can get him."

So at 9 o'clock this morning the detectives went to the appointed place and Gormley sauntered up to them with a broad grin on his face and a perfect to his lips.

When arrested on June 9, Gormley managed to wriggle out of the clutches of the police when Magistrate Breen admitted him to $250 bail. Arraigned on one charge, he is accused of burglaries aggregating $5,000. The bond was furnished by James F. Kennedy, formerly a police court clerk. Gormley promptly jumped the bond, whereupon Kennedy was sent to the Tombs charged with retainer. In qualifying for "Jack" Gormley's bond he swore that he owned certain Bronx lots. He did not lie in still in the Tombs, and declares that he has been made a "goat" by "Burglar Jack's" influential political friends.

Storm in Mulberry Street.
The simple method by which Gormley slipped from the police toils stirred up a great storm in Mulberry street. Commissioner Bingham and Inspector McCafferty denounced the action of Magistrate Breen, Lieutenants Kear and Reilly, who arrested "Jack," said their prisoner was one of the most dangerous criminals in the country. They had got him with the goods after he had cleaned out an apartment, and in his flat at No. 249 Third avenue, they had found the proceeds of more than thirty robberies.

The Gormley apartment, where "Jack" lived with his wife and an alleged "stall" partner, variously known as Thomas Burns and Tommy Derby, was found to be a snug cache for Gormley's plunder. It was even equipped with a safe. "I put the swag in the strong box," Gormley explained, "as I didn't want burglars to get it."

Gormley got away so swiftly that the police had not even an opportunity to get a good picture of him. The sole one they had of him was ten years old. Yet this was the only photograph upon which the police could work, and it was reproduced in the circulars that were sent throughout the country.

Had $15,000 in Cash.
When Gormley walked out of the Night Court the police said that he had about $15,000 in his clothes. It was also said that "Jack" was an old friend of Percy Nagle and had once saved Nagle's life by stepping between the Bronx leader and a man who was pumping bullets at him. Nagle had killed it, though.

However that may be, the ball-pumping burglar has been immune from police vigilance. But while he remained invisible his wife was not inactive. She began paying visits to Inspector McCafferty a week after her husband vanished.

"Your men will never find Jack unless he is willing," she said, "and he'll never give himself up if you are going to prosecute him as a second offender or for burglary in one of the higher degrees."

Mrs. Gormley made it very clear that her husband preferred being hunted all his life to going to jail for twenty years. But if he could arrange to get a light "bail" say not more than five years, why then he might give himself up.

At first McCafferty would not hear of such a thing as an arrangement with an elusive burglar. His men would surely get him. But they did not. In fact, two weeks ago they reported that they were absolutely in the dark as to Gormley's whereabouts. Then the Inspector began to talk things over with Gen. Bingham.

Gormley was a dangerous man to be at large. Would it not be wise to compromise? If he could be sent away for only a short time it would be better for the community than to have him at large. Mrs. Gormley was granted an interview. She dictated her terms. McCafferty told her then if the District-Attorney would consent, Gormley's terms would be accepted.

Jerome Agreed to Deal.
Jerome did not like the deal at all at first. But McCafferty informed him that Gormley absolutely would not be found. Would it not be better to hand him a few years up the river than to have him roving round and about the city?

At least the District-Attorney saw the major in that light, and Mrs. Gormley was invited to visit Police Headquarters yesterday and make the arrangements for her husband's surrender.

McCafferty is said to have given her an absolute assurance that when "Jack" gave himself up he would be released promptly. The programme is to take him in first, to Governor's residence, to have him plead guilty to burglary in the second degree.

This satisfied Mrs. Gormley and she said: "You have two of my men at Fifty-fifth street and Ninth avenue at 9 o'clock Friday morning, and Jack will

TAMMANY READY FOR ITS MARCH ON DENVER TO-NIGHT

Nine Hundred Braves Have Secured Berths on the Special Trains.

FIRST STARTS AT 7 P. M.

Bowery Contingent Carries a Boom for Little Tim and a Cabinet Slate.

In five special trains decorated with banners and stocked with things good to eat and drink, nine hundred Tammany Hall braves will start at 7 and 7:30 o'clock to-night to attend the National Democratic Convention which begins next Tuesday in Denver. It looks like a good bet that all the long distance poker sitting records will be smashed before Tammanites reach their destination.

All the Sullivans, including Big and Little Tim; Sheriff Tom Foley, "Battery Dan" Finn, John F. Ahearn, Charles Calkin, Julius Harburger, the smallest leader in Tammany, and Joe Prendergast make up the district bosses who will start the Tammany attack on the convention city, leaving via the Erie Railroad at 7 o'clock.

A canvass of this special would easily find "Little Tim" Sullivan the unanimous choice for the Presidential nomination. The Peerless One of Nebraska would be a piker if the downtown delegates had their way. Incidentally, the Sullivans have a Cabinet slate to hold until Denver is reached, which sizes up as follows:

Tammany Cabinet Slate.
Attorney-General—Henry Goldsmith, of the Bowery.
Secretary of the Navy—M. Clarence Padden.
Secretary of the Treasury—Moe Levy.
Secretary of War—"Kid" McPartland.
Secretary of the Interior—Johnny White.

"Little Tim" says that he could easily find constituents to fill all the jobs, and in a pinch he could call on his friend Tom Foley to suggest a few extra names.

A tarboer shop quartette composed of election district captains has been selected to entertain the party with songs during the 2,000 mile trip. George Cohan has written a song dedicated to the Tim Sullivan and Tom Foley entitled "Come on Downtown," which will probably keep a lot of bewildered delegates from the Western States awake nights. It runs like this:

"There's the Thomas Foley a good fellow wholly.
"He'll have you me, Tim, you'll just have over him.
"And his whole soul way.
"The men in their prime are down-town all the time.
"For it's there they'd rather stay;
"With New York by the ear, about one a day.
"That they see Broadway.
"Come on downtown, etc."

Foley's Poker Rules.
"I tried to have rules made barring poker twelve hours out of twenty-four," said Sheriff Foley, "but the response and protests I heard was enough to kill my ear drums. However, we'll limit the game, and no one will lose more than a million or two playing poker on the downtown special."

From Foley's district the delegates include Congressman Dan Rorion, Assemblyman "Al" Smith, Alderman Mike Stapleton, ex-Alderman McCarthy and some of the huskiest young men that Cherry Hill can boast of.

Four other trains, two each on the New York Central and the Pennsylvania, will start at 7:30, a half-hour after the downtown special. Fire Commissioner Hayes will be the boss of the upper east side Harlem crowd.

"Al" Johnson was the official commissary of the Tammany delegations, and he paid special attention to the Nick Hayes special. There is enough things to smoke and eat aboard the Fire Commissioner's train to keep a fair-sized Western town supplied for a year.

City Marshal Henry Lazarus, Jake Levy and Charles W. McTeague will see that everyone has a good time. The Fire Commissioner's train will be accompanied by the delegation of the Fire Commissioner's train to keep a fair-sized Western town supplied for a year.

BRYAN IN HIS PAPER BIDS FOR HEARST'S FAVOR

Conciliatory Editorial in the Commoner Attracts Much Attention in Lincoln.

DENVER, July 3.—Great interest was felt here concerning an editorial in Bryan's newspaper speaking favorably of W. R. Hearst, which became public when the Commoner appeared on the newsstands. Mr. Bryan's defense of Mr. Hearst and the Independence League was regarded as a deliberate proffer of the olive branch—an invitation to the New York publisher to come back to the fold, to complete the restoration of harmony in the party.

Mr. Hearst's response to this overture is awaited with the deepest interest. It is even hinted in some quarters that Mr. Bryan has been assured that such a concession on his part would meet with a prompt response from Mr. Hearst. No matter how much truth there may be in these conjectures, the benefits of a reconciliation between the two men is something no one questions.

"The Republican papers are quick to assume that Mr. Hearst will oppose the Democratic ticket. They ought to give Mr. Hearst credit for having made a sign for certain well defined reforms and they ought to give him credit for his recognition of the need of reform."

The committee of the Independence League was called to meet after the editorial in the Commoner was published. The survey of the situation might be made, and since the Republican convention has adjourned, the independence convention has been postponed for a month, which gives greater opportunity for deliberation. Mr. Hearst could hardly be expected to announce in advance of the other conventions what he thought ought to be done, but he will be a candidate in the Democratic convention after the adoption of the platform written this year.

"He was willing to make the fight for the reforms outlined in that platform. There is no danger of the platform this year containing less of reform than the platform of 1904. There is every indication that it will go even farther in demanding remedial legislation. If the platform of 1904 was good enough for Mr. Hearst to support."

The arrangements for the party were made by the Honorable William Stephen Devery, ex-Police Chief, who will head the Pennsylvania special. In his delegation are Johnny Dalton, Dick McGowan, Joseph Pierson, Deputy Sheriff Jack McQuinn and others.

The Pennsylvania special will travel on Pennsylvania Special No. 2, under the leadership of Thomas E. Rush and the good friends of the Wigwag. The good friends of the Wigwag will make things hum in the convention city.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—Renewed interest in the matter of the selection of a Republican national chairman was aroused today by the presence here of W. L. Ward, of New York, and Frank B. Kellogg, of Minnesota. They are the members of the Republican National Committee from their respective States, and both are members of the sub-committee appointed to confer with Judge Taft on the question of the national chairman.

Mr. Ward declined to be interviewed regarding the chairmanship, and Mr. Kellogg talked about it generally, but not specifically.

The determination of the chairmanship has been reached in the course of the numerous conferences which Judge Taft has held with friends since he returned to Washington. It is quite certain that no hard and fast agreement has been evolved from the conference.

It is known that Mr. Kellogg, who has been in New York and in New Jersey since he last conferred with Judge Taft personally, has been in long distance telephone communication with Judge Taft respecting the chairmanship.

DEATHS FROM HEAT.

MANHATTAN.
MRS. JENNIE LIPFELD, of No. 101 West Seventy-eighth street, died suddenly at her home this afternoon after complaining about pains in her head, which had been caused by the extreme heat. She was found unconscious by her son and daughter, and died while a physician was ministering to her.

BROOKLYN.
MRS. MARY SHEA, forty-eight years old, of No. 110 Sullivan street, was the first victim of the heat to be reported at the Brooklyn Coroner's Office to-day.

ALBANY.
ALBERT GIBARD, forty-two years old, died at his home, No. 145 Summit street, after suffering intensely from the heat all night.

The humidity and murky atmosphere following the showers last night claimed three more victims to-day. Although showers are promised by the local Weather Bureau for today and tomorrow, the weather men insist that they will not bring cooler weather or relief to the distressed victims of the heat in Greater New York.

The effect of the south-easterly breeze that held the temperature in the seventies during the morning was lost by the overpowering and discomforting humidity and stickiness which prevailed. This condition, the Official Forecaster says, must be endured to-day and to-morrow, accompanied by intermittent showers, and may be followed by more intense heat, as there is no cool wave in sight.

The two persons who died of heat to-day in Brooklyn were prostrated yesterday afternoon.

With the humidity hovering around the ninety mark, the hospitals are preparing to handle many more persons.

NEGRO QUESTION MAY TIE UP THE SOUTHERN MEN.

DENVER, July 3.—The negro question may come to the front in the convention. Report has reached Denver that Mr. Bryan would be pleased to see incorporated in the platform a rebuke to the Administration for the dismissal of the colored troops on account of the Brownsville (Tex.) affair, and the matter may have been reached in the course of the numerous conferences which Judge Taft has held with friends since he returned to Washington. It is quite certain that no hard and fast agreement has been evolved from the conference.

It is known that Mr. Kellogg, who has been in New York and in New Jersey since he last conferred with Judge Taft personally, has been in long distance telephone communication with Judge Taft respecting the chairmanship.

FIREWORKS KILL 6; SCORE INJURED IN STORE EXPLOSION

Ignition of Explosives Among Shop- pers in Busy Establishment Causes Fire Panic and Great Loss of Life.

CLEVELAND, O., July 3.—Six persons, five women and a five-year-old boy, are known to be dead, while a score of others were more or less seriously injured as the result of an explosion of fireworks in the S. Kresge five and ten-cent store on Ontario street to-day.

A panic among the hundreds of clerks and customers followed the explosion. Flames and smoke filled the four upper floors of the store.

Girls Trapped by Flames.
Two of the dead girls were working at the fireworks counter on the ground floor. This counter was situated in the center of the store and box-shaped. The girls were inside the enclosure. When the explosion occurred, they could not escape. The girls dropped to the floor and sought safety under the counter.

The flying rockets and crackers were exploding about them.
Customers about the counter had an opportunity to escape. No one stopped to save the girls. They burned to death in this trap.

It was not known until nearly two hours after the fire that any one had lost her life. This was learned when the firemen began searching the building after the flames were conquered. The charred bodies of the girls with the little boy were found on the first floor and in the basement.

The fire was started while a clerk was demonstrating one of the pieces of fireworks. A spark ignited the other pieces.

The boy who lost his life was identified as James Parker. He was in the store with his mother when the explosion occurred. The mother escaped uninjured.

The girl attendants were evidently smothered, as the bodies were not badly burned.

Many Trampled in Panic.
The noise of the explosion startled those on the other floors and a panic ensued. Smoke and flames were drawn up the stairways by a draught. This added to the panic. A rush was made by the clerks and shoppers for the stairways and windows. Many were trampled upon. Others tumbled down the stairways. Others jumped from the second and third story windows.

Some who jumped escaped injury by being caught in life nets held by firemen.

The Misses Emma and Lotta Jaskins, sisters, were shopping on the second floor when the fire broke out. When the cry of fire was shouted they ran with the crowd toward the stairways. There was no chance to get out, however, for the stairways were blocked with the number of people. They then rushed back toward a window.

Both the young women climbed out on the window ledge. The smoke was pouring out behind them. The crowd yelled for them to jump and several policemen stood below ready to catch them.

Miss Emma Jaskins jumped first. An attempt was made to catch her, and her fall was partly broken. She struck the sidewalk heavily, however, and her leg was broken.

Her sister remained in the building until the flames shot over her through the window. She was badly burned about the back. When the search of the flames finally reached her she decided to jump. She was caught in the arms of several policemen and was not hurt by the fall.

Windows Were Jammed.
On the second, third and fourth floors the clerks and customers were cut off from escape by the smoke, which rushed up the stairway. It would have meant suffocation to have attempted to escape in this manner. The elevators were worked to their full capacity, but this made a small impression upon the huge crowd that thronged the store.

Shrieking from the elevators and stairs, the crowd rushed to the windows. Rapidly in windows were so crowded and jammed that none could crawl through at first upon the ledge. There they grouped, wildly shrieking until ordered to jump by the firemen, who by this time had spread the life net. Many jumped.

When the firemen arrived dozens were crowded in the windows and upon the ledges. The firemen ordered them to remain quiet. Ladders were hoisted and the people were lowered to the ground. A negro conducted the rescue. He climbed the fire-escape and snatched the windows in. At the bottom of the fire escape there was a map of ten feet, but the girls and women made this leap without injury.

His case has progressed to such a stage of weakness that it seemed that even the cheerful and uncomplaining spirit which the Bishop has displayed could maintain him only a short time.

HELD AS BLACKMAILERS.
Two Greeks Arrested in Central Park Must Give $5,000 Bail.

Dimitrios Kalafatis and George Rallis were held in $5,000 bail each for trial by Magistrate Wahle, in the Jefferson Market Court, to-day on a charge of blackmail.

The two were arrested as they were leaving Central Park, according to the detectives, after Kalafatis had picked up a dummy package of bills covered on either end with a one and five dollar bill. The package had been left at the late William McNamara, a candy manufacturer with stores at Nos. 210 and 368 Sixth avenue. McNamaki left the money as per instruction received in a threatening letter of the Black Hand style earlier in the day.

BATTLE IN TABRIZ VIOLATING A TRUCE.

Under White Flag, Revolutionists Begin Shooting Again at the Reactionist Troops.

TABRIZ, July 3.—The trouble in this city broke out again to-day, when the reactionaries and the revolutionists, after a brief truce yesterday, again started shooting at each other.

The revolutionists last evening hoisted a white flag and intimated their desire and readiness to surrender, but this circumstance was embraced by a reactionary mob to loot and destroy the bazaar quarter of the city.

The revolutionists at once recalled all their men to arms. They erected another barricade and another bloody conflict in the district began.

All the foreign residents of Tabriz have hung out over their houses, their respective flags. They are not believed to be in danger.

There is a serious shortage of bread in Tabriz.

CUTICURA STOPPED HIS UNBEARABLE TORTURE

"About four years ago, in London, I was troubled by a severe itching and dry, scurfy skin on my ankles and feet. The same, in a few days, was the case with my arms and scalp. I could hardly keep from scratching, and, so, for I was made it worse. Then large red patches appeared on my arms and legs, and inflammation and soreness. After ten days, thousands of small red pimples formed. On becoming angry, the itching became unbearable. I was advised to go to the hospital for diseases of the skin. I did so and was an out-patient for a month or more, the chief surgeon saying: 'I never saw such a bad case of eczema. But I got little or no relief. Then I tried many so-called remedies, but I became so bad that I almost gave up in despair. I was coming to this country to see a doctor, but I hope that they will do as I did, and I am sure of the results. Henry Searle, 2022 Cross St., Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 8 and 10, '07.'"
